I watch him from across the pool. I have been out here for close to thirty minutes laying here in my chair. I have picked out the perfect bikini a little two piece that hugs all the right places. My body look simply amazing and I know if Brad would just take five minutes to look my way he would be amazed and so would Clint as well my guys who raised me. Yet here I sit basking in the sun not getting the attention I desire. Every since I turned legal Brad had started acting different around me. We used to be so close but not it seems like I have to do everything I can to get him to even look my way. Despite everything I have done so far today nothing has worked for either of my guys.

Everything will hopefully change as I follow my two guys inside to find out what they need and what they want. This little brat is ready for some fun.
