A Fun, Standalone Contemporary Romance with No Cliffhanger

Justine Bradley is young, vivacious and beautiful in her dark skin. She dresses to compliment her complexion and always wears something fashionable that flatters her figure. John Brighton, Justine's father's best friend, is dashing good-looking, smart, funny and has been a part of Justine's life long enough to know that she's grown from precocious teenager into a stunning young woman. As she studies for her medical school entrance exams, John can't get her out of his mind. Will he make the first move, or will Justine take matters into her own hands?

WARNING: This ebook contains mature themes and language. Intended for 18+ readers only.
