The Single's Connection -- Transforming Relationships for Single Women Mary W J Tay

Here is a book that aims to help the single woman live life to the full, whether young or old, never married, divorced or widowed. The focus of this book is on relationships, calling the single woman to be connected in a healthy way to God, and the people she lives and works with. It explores issues such as identity, beauty in singleness, surrender, boundaries, channel, giving, power, godliness, contentment and delight. What distinguishes this book from other books on singleness is the focus on Asian perspectives and penetrating case studies. Although this book is written for single women, single men, married people, parents and male pastors and counsellors might find it insightful and helpful.
