The Catholic Mystery: Understanding the Beliefs and Practices of Modern Catholicism John H. Armstrong

Where do evangelicals and Roman Catholics stand today? Have the recent steps toward ecumenism paved the way for a complete reconciliation in the new millennium? In a sensitive, thoughtful manner, John Armstrong looks at how the rift between Catholics and Protestants started centuries ago, then carefully walks us through the ages to the present day, providing a clear picture of what has and hasn't changed. The key, he says, is not what we have in common with each other, but with God's Word.
