What every woman wants in a man A. L Fiasconaro

This book was written for those men and women who are contemplating marriage and to those who are seeking the ultimate relationship with their marriage partner.

Much has already been written encouraging the woman to submit to her mate. Since the subject has already been well covered, What Every Woman Wants in a Man does not deal with this.

What Every Woman Wants in a Man is directed to the man, showing him practical, specific ways of learning to live with the mysterious being, woman.

Most every woman is eager to please her mate and is awaiting the day that her partner will become the tender, loving man she has already dreamed of.

The secret to successful marriage and having a great love life is being in right relationship to God and each other.
