Time Enough for the Henchman Thomas Raleigh

A trusted member of Chicago's infamous "North-Side Gang" in the late 1920's, and trapped in his own dead-ended existence, John Cunin would not be able to change course, but for an extraordinary encounter with a mysterious, crooked-armed man on the morning of his untimely death, and a group of young boys who would unwittingly be forced to intercede on his behalf. As fate would have it, they would provide him a rather unique opportunity to escape his past. That opportunity would present itself in a series of otherworldly events over the course of a few days...a few days in the lives of four young boys that would somehow bridge together nearly four lost decades for him.
