Amanda Wilson was in the prime of her life. Then, one night, her husband passed away in her arms. Amanda knew her life would never be the same again - but had no idea just how true or big that statement was going to become. Supported by nominal beliefs, she began to question G.O.D. and how the death of her husband could happen. Shortly after that, the spiritual encounters started - in and out of her home - to and with Amanda and her children. Experiences that are now a daily occurrence. The continued personal journey would lead Amanda to past life and spiritual regression sessions, learning about things she didn't even know existed - taking her to the very depths of her mind and soul - going beyond anything she could have ever imagined was even possible. This is not a story about near-death experience. Through hypnosis, Amanda was "willingly and knowingly" going through what she calls the tunnel to the white light - the Gateway - and beyond. With continued attendance of sessions, it wasn't long before things changed. Messages were coming - words for the world from her soul and personal guide. What now? Just when Amanda thought she understood the purpose and importance of those words, she began to see an energy that was bigger than anything that she had ever seen. What was this large mass of energy that appeared to her while under hypnosis? After that, things really started to change because G.O.D. started talking through Amanda - with a lot more to say about many different topics - and then things changed again. There was still more to come. Somewhat similar to what happened with Neale Donald Walsch, Author of The Complete Conversations With God, messages are now being channeled through Amanda in her everyday life outside of her sessions and those words of concern, love and support are included in Hey G.O.D.! Are You There? This is the true story of how G.O.D. connected with a woman during her time of need, nicknamed her My Little Messenger and has taught her how making a difference in the world is more important than she ever thought it was, how G.O.D. showed her how endless G.O.D.'s love for humanity is, how worried G.O.D. is about our world and how simply we can all achieve our own personal, private friendship with G.O.D. in our own time and space. Hey G.O.D.! Are You There? includes many actual dialogues taken from the regression sessions that Amanda attended. You are going to learn things in this book that will surprise you. When you read this book, please read it with your heart - not your mind. There are reasons why these things have happened - very important reasons. In order to establish credibility with readers, Amanda worked through nine sessions held between December 5, 2009 and May 25, 2011. That is well over 50 hours worth of recordings to create the book and the Companion Disc, which will allow you to "hear" what she has written about - what happened during her sessions - in both the manner and tone as actually occurred. The recordings are live, with only names beeped out and slight pitch adjustment of voices for privacy purposes without causing inability to understand the words. Our world is a mess. Things need to change. There are way too many people that need help. That is why every purchase of any Hey G.O.D.! Are You There? product will help make a difference in the world. Amanda and the author of Hey G.O.D.! Are You There?, Bill Hawkins, have committed to donate after expenses, all proceeds from the sale of each and every Hey G.O.D.! Are You There? product towards major world issues such as helping feed the hungry and shelter the needy and homeless. With the support of G.O.D. and for G.O.D. and the people of our world, Amanda and Bill are both doing everything they can with their lives to help make as much of a difference as possible.
