Though Ivy prays Darien doesn't believe the rumors that she ended their engagement to become his father's mistress, she can't deny her longtime liason with his former friend. Since Darien has become a drunk and a recluse, Ivy suspects he has heard every torrid thing ever whispered about her.

He persuades Ivy to join him in his quest, letting her believe she could somehow atone for their bitter breakup. Knowing he might never be able to forgive her, he also has never stopped loving her. Once he has Ivy back on his family estate, nothing will stop him from keeping Ivy or discovering the secret his father desperately wants kept silent. If only the truth Darien longs to uncover doesn't become the one thing that will keep he and Ivy apart forever.
