Diagnosis and Management of Ocular Motility Disorders Alec M. Ansons, Helen Davis

As in previous editions, the aim of the third edition of this book is to provide guidance on the diagnosis and management of ocular motility disorders which is based on clinical experience. This edition sees a new team of authors who have kept very much to this principle in their nevertheless thorough revision of the book. All chapters have been comprehensively revised and updated and a new chapter on an 'Introduction to concomitant strabismus' has been added. The immediate impact of this extensive revision can be seen in the improved page layout with increased use of diagrams and tables. There are also new sections on feigned visual loss in adults and children, and the management of residual defects, whilst the section on botulinum toxin treatment has been completely rewritten to take account of the great advances in this form of treatment.
