New job, new town, new people—new life.

That was what Olivia Langston needed. At twenty-eight, she was given a rare opportunity for an internship in the rolling valleys of Crystal Falls in California wine country, far away from her small-town roots in North Carolina. It was an unexpected journey she desperately needed after her ex-husband crushed her.

At DeVine Winery, she expected a fresh start in a new environment to help her let go of her past. Instead, she found Daniel Black and a hell of a lot of sexual tension she wasn't prepared for. He was gorgeous, modestly wealthy, irresistible, and just happened to be part owner of DeVine, one of the largest vineyards in the country.

If only she knew that before she kissed him her first night in town...
