Tales from the Marsh and Other Drivel: The Humorous Side of a Federal Game Warden's Life

Leonard Lisenbee

Getting pummeled by an elderly lady with a broom, ending up chin deep in a beavers pond, getting knocked on the butt by a wood duck, or stopping a violator's motorboat with an airplane. These could have been everyday incidents if you happened to be a Federal Game Warden. all these and a lot of other situations, running the full gauntlet from side splittingly funny to deadly serious, are just part and parcel to one Federal game warden's life. And while most were serious events when they originally happened, they are recounted here in mainly humorous form , a direct result of the mists of time. After all, nearly getting run down by an ocean-going ore carrier or a fish poacher's boat was anything but funny when it happened. But looking back over those many years since the incidents, humor has a way of , thankfully, exerting itself.
