No good deed goes unpunished. That's a lesson Finn McCallan will soon learn. While saving the life of a critically injured woman, Finn gains the attention of a powerful demon. Amused by Finn's selfless heroics, the fiend tricks him into a contest, one designed to help Finn "find" his soul. What Finn doesn't know is this contest will push him beyond the darkest regions of our mortal world. A bargain is struck and a brand of Perdition is forced upon Finn. He gains the ability to pierce the fabric of what we believe as reality...an ability to see the innermost duality that people often hide, by peering into their souls. This ability serves both as a blessing and a curse. An ability to see true evil creates a personal cost for Finn. In the end will he be able to save his soul?
